

Program

WELCOME • 9.50AM – 10.15AM

Selina Walker,
2024 ACT Australian of the Year Local Hero, Ngunnawal
woman and emerging elder
Welcome to Country

Christine Cockburn, CEO,
Rare Cancers Australia
Opening Address

SESSION 1 • 10.15AM – 12.00PM

The answers within: Unleashing the power of personalised care

Natalie Willacy,
Rare Ambassador

Professor Matt Brown,
Chief Scientific Officer,
Genomics England

Tiffany Boughtwood,
Australian Health
Genomics Commissioner,
Genomics Australia

The Hon. Mark Butler, Minister for Health and Ageing, Minister for Disability and NDIS

Senator the Hon. Anne Ruston, Shadow Minister
for Health and Aged Care,
Disability and the NDIS,
and Sport

Fireside chat: From research to reality: where are we on mainstreaming genomic-led care?

Chaired by
Adjunct Professor
Sophie Scott OAM

Professor Matt Brown,
Chief Scientific Officer,
Genomics England

Tiffany Boughtwood,
Australian Health
Genomics Commissioner,
Genomics Australia

Associate Professor Azure
Hermes, Deputy Director,
National Centre for Indigenous Genomics, Australian
National University

LUNCH • 12.00PM – 12:50PM

SESSION 2 • 12.50PM – 2.20PM

Ready or not, the cancer care revolution is here

Kevin MacIsaac,
Rare Community Member

Professor Tracey
O'Brien AM, NSW Chief
Cancer Officer and CEO
of Cancer Institute NSW

Tori Brown, President of North Asia-Pacific
and General Manager of Australia and
New Zealand, Lilly

Panel discussion: Shifting gears: The cancer care revolution

Chaired by
Adjunct Professor
Sophie Scott OAM

Professor David Thomas, Chief Science and Strategy Officer, Omico

Associate Professor
Seth Cheetham,
University of Queensland

Associate Professor
Rachel Conyers,
Murdoch Children's Cancer Institute

Dr Deme Karikios,
Medical Oncologist,
Nepean Hospital

SESSION 3 • 2.50PM – 4.30PM

When we know better, we do better

Tienielle Jordan,
Rare Ambassador

Associate Professor
Judith Lacey, Head of
Supportive Care and
Integrative Oncology,
Chris O'Brien Lifehouse

Professor Meinir
Krishnasamy, Professor of Cancer Nursing, University of Melbourne

Panel discussion: From the ward to the Board: Let's make it personal

Chaired by
Adjunct Professor
Sophie Scott OAM

Tienielle Jordan,
Rare Ambassador

Associate Professor
Judith Lacey, Head of
Supportive Care and
Integrative Oncology,
Chris O'Brien Lifehouse

Kirsten Pilatti,
Chief Executive Officer,
Breast Cancer Network
Australia

Adjunct Associate
Professor Jo Watson,
Deputy Chair,
Pharmaceutical Benefits
Advisory Committee